

Leonardo da Vinci Partnership Project

Joint meeting by Technology Faculty and Ostim Vocational High School of Gazi University
Ankara, Turkey
22 - 25th of June 2015

MINUTES OF THE MEETING

Participating Partners:

Nieuwe Media School, Belgium
Gazi University - Ostim Vocational School, Turkey
Gazi University - Technology Faculty, Turkey
Wisamar Educational Institute, Germany
Foster Foundation, Malta
Globulen, Sweden
Ises, Spain

Day 1: Tuesday, 23rd of June 2015

Welcome to Ankara and Introduction into the program by Prof. Dr. Süleyman Tekeli

Interactive Lessons:

The first interactive lesson by Ostim Vocational High School of Gazi University: "EU Network Employment on Youth, EU Platform Against Social Exclusion" by Miss Bahar Erkan.

Miss Bahar Erkan explained

- What is unemployment?
- Unemployment rates in Europe last 10 years
- What does European enterprises do?
- Objectives of the European Union network
- What is social exclusion?
- What are its effects to social life in society?
- How can it be related with the unemployment of youth?

Leonardo da Vinci Partnership Project

Joint meeting by Technology Faculty and Ostim Vocational High School of Gazi University
Ankara, Turkey
22 - 25th of June 2015

The second interactive lesson by Ostim Vocational High School of Gazi University:
"Entrepreneurship in Academic Field" by Dr. Semih ÖZDEN

Dr. Semih ÖZDEN presented

- Importance of entrepreneurship,
- Entrepreneurship education in general
- Entrepreneurship in academic field
- Entrepreneurship education in Gazi University
- As an example, success story of entrepreneurship at Gazi University

The third interactive lesson by Technology Faculty of Gazi University: "University –Business Cooperation" by Miss Bahar Erkan.

Miss Bahar Erkan defined;

- The importance of university - industry cooperation
- A conceptual perspective on the university - industry cooperation.
- Industry and science, the concept of cooperation
- The main goal of university-industry cooperation
- Benefits of the university-industry cooperation
- Expectations of the parties forming the university-industry cooperation
- The reasons that hinder and undermine university- industry collaboration
- University-industry collaboration practises

Final Event of the Aurora project

A final event for the Aurora project took place at Ostim Vocational High School of Gazi University with the attendance of the partners as well as students and lecturers of the high school. Willy Aerts presented the results of the project to all attendees.

Visits:

- Visiting Ostim Vocational High School of Gazi University,
- Seeing an project exhibition of the final year students.
- Visiting headquarter of Ostim Organised Industrial Zone
- Attending the presentation about Ostim Organised Industrial Zone.
- Visiting to the workshop where a success story of entrepreneurship took place

Leonardo da Vinci Partnership Project

Joint meeting by Technology Faculty and Ostim Vocational High School of Gazi University
Ankara, Turkey
22 - 25th of June 2015

Day 2: Wednesday, 24th of June 2015

Discussion and writing on the common part A of the final report by Carola Dierich. Task distributions in the common part A of the final report;

- Final evaluation report in the common part A will be prepared by Maltese partner.
- Update of the monitoring plan of the Aurora project will be prepared by Swedish partner.
- Dissemination report of Aurora project will be prepared by French partner.
- Updating Pinterest page by Spanish partner.
- Changing the English summary of the project in the EST database by Belgian partner.

All these tasks for the common part A will be completed and sent to Carola Dierich by 24th of July. Afterwards, Carola will complete and send the common part A of the final report to all partners.

Cultural Activities:

City tour through Ankara by Hakan Ada and Prof. Dr. Süleyman Tekeli. During a tour through the city center of Ankara, the participants saw historical part and cultural places of Ankara.